

EAM TRAVEL GRANTS FOR STUDENTS PRESENTING AT EAM2023

The European Association of Methodology (<https://www.eam-online.org/>) is pleased to announce four travel grants to subsidize travel costs of students for participating in the 10th European Congress of Methodology (EAM2023) to be held in Ghent. Each grant will consist of a maximum of 750 Euro devoted to cover travel expenses, lodging costs, and/or congress registration. The travel stipend holders need to hand in the receipts after the congress and the costs will be refunded up to a maximum of 750 Euro.

REQUIREMENTS TO APPLY FOR THE EAM TRAVEL GRANTS:

- To be a Master or PhD student
- To have submitted an abstract to the EAM2023 (as poster, oral presentation or presentation within a symposium)
- The abstract must have been accepted
- The applicant must be the presenter (first author) of the proposal in the congress.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

Candidates will send an email to Ana.Hernandez@uv.es stating that they apply for one of the EAM travel grants to attend EAM2023. The email should be sent before May 31st, including the following documents:

- Short CV (max. 3 pages)
- Extended 700-word abstract describing the proposal
- An official certificate issued by their university as proof of their student status

SELECTION CRITERIA:

The applicants' proposals will be assessed by the EAM executive committee considering the following criteria:

- Quality of the proposal (50%)
- Degree of methodological innovation (30%)
- CV (20%)